

Reimbursement of publication charges

1. Reimbursement may be claimed subject to following conditions:

- a. Journal is currently indexed in Scopus and / or Web of Science core indices and ranked Q2 or higher within the primary category of the topic of the publication. Rankings of the latest available year will be considered.
- b. Reimbursement can be claimed only by Nitte DU faculty members who are first or corresponding authors.

2. Following types of publications are eligible:

- c. Article
- d. Review / Meta-analysis
- e. Case report

3. Following types of publications are not eligible:

- f. Abstract
- g. Conference proceedings / Conference reports
- h. Editorial
- i. Erratum
- j. Letter
- k. Note
- l. Press release
- m. Short Survey

4. For publications arising from externally funded projects, reimbursement of publication charges may be claimed from the contingency and / or overheads grants of the projects

5. Proportionate share of authors from institutions outside of Nitte DU who are not from organization with formal collaborations / MOUs with Nitte DU will be deducted from the eligible amount.

6. Reimbursement limits are as follows:

Journal Type	Impact Factor Band of Web of Science Journals	Percentile Rank Band of Scopus Journal	Publication fees (in Rupees)
Q1	8 & Above	95-100%	Full support on acceptance
Q1	5 – 7.99	90-94.99%	Up to Rs. 1.5 Lakhs
Q1	3 – 4.99	85-89.99%	Up to Rs. 1 Lakh
Q1	0 – 2.99	75-84.99%	Rs. 50000/-
Q2	–	–	Rs. 20000/-
Q3-Q4	–	–	No fee support

7. Procedure to apply for publication fee reimbursement

- a. The faculty should have sought for partial/ full – waiver from the Editor/Journals (Correspondence for the same to be enclosed)
- b. In case of a journal having an 'Open Access' option, authors are requested to go with 'Closed Access' in the same journal.
- c. The manuscript, journal details, indexing and Q ranking should be submitted to the University when requesting for fee assistance.